The Lodge was open in due form at 7:30pm. November 09, 2009, we had (2) two visitors from Fern Creek Lodge. The Secretary then read the minutes from two previous meetings, Oct 12 and Oct 20, 2009. The Secretary stated that he will read the minutes for Oct 26th at our next regular stated meeting. The Secretary then read (2) petitions for Mr. Bracewell and Mr. Burnnett and a committee was set.

The Treasurer then read his report and it will be attached hereto. Brother Steve Moffett talked about the OES and that we give them (2) two months rent free and put this into a motion and 2nd. After discussion of other ways of helping OES, it was discussed and then lost on motion.

Motion made to pay webmaster, website and domain for 2010 total cost of $350.00 voted on and passed. The Master then talked about getting filing cabinets for the lodge historical paper works to be put in the safe at Waddy Lodge 662. Brother Nick Yount was put in charge of taking care of this affair. The Master and Brother Nick Yount talked about the events at the Grand Lode of Kentucky. Solomon's Lodge No. 5 received the attendance award.

The Lodge wants to give thanks to Brother Jason Ross for his help on setting up the flag pole and lights. Motion made that we don't have a Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner unless it is Dutch treat at a restaurant voted on and passed. Committees for Christmas dinner are Egon Tirbs, Steve Moffett and Jon Hall. Motions made that we have St. John night on December 28th instead of the 27th because the 27th fell on Sunday night voted on and passed. Brother Raymond Byers wife is in the Old Mason Home in Shelbyville, KY for rehab after injury. These minutes will be voted on at our next regular stated meeting 11-23-09. With no other business the Lodge was closed in due form at 8:45 pm.
